CELEBRATING MORGAN'S DEATH .-The first Tuesday in October has the life, robberies and wholesale thefts of John H. Morgan, the most renowned land pirate of the nineteenth century. All the beasts in the "animal kingdom" are required to assemble precisely at ten o'clock, and commence their devotions. Blooded horses and mares will convene in their respective stables, and rebel Presbyterian ministers will lead in their faces towards "old Westminster," occasionally pausing and profanely swearing by the God that made John Calvin that "whatever is, is right," except the election of Lincoln, and that God had "foreordained whatsoever come to pass," alway except-ing the issuing of the emancipa-tion proclamation. Mules, of high and low degree will convene in their lots and pastures, in the open air, and their devotion will be led by rebel Baptist preachers, who, standing in water up to the seats of their breeches, shall swear with their right hands on a jug of corn whisky, that there is no salvation without swimming the Cumberland river as often as John Morgan has done in search of mules; and when the preacher pauses to take a dram, every mule shall bray by way of response to the pious exercise. the jackasses shall all convene in their respective stables, and with "closed doors," after the manner of "class meetings," congated, the preachers kneeling, as odist slave code, and after a fer-animals shall return to their pas-tures, "wiser and better brutes," and the reverend clergy shall go fore the war-and was a belle at to their homes, and get drunk and several watering places during mistake other then's wives for the summer months, refused last their own, nnder a pretence of week to take the hand of an old seeking their "rights."-Knox. friend in Federal uniform, who Whig.

HARD FIGHTING .- A Captain in Sherman's army wrote to a friend in Nevada before the fall of Atlanta, as follows:

"We have had a hard campaign. This the one hundredth and eighth day since we broke our camp and be its enemies.—Correspondence commenced to march, and out of this one hundred and eight days there have not been twenty that we have not been under fire.

* * It is expected we will get a short rest when our cavalry (who are out raiding) get back and Atlanta falls."

Secessia Feminina.—The faces that look down from the windows been agreed upon by all "beasts of this valley [Shenandoah] have, of burden" as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Gen. Gillam and his command, for the timely and religious act of terminating glamor fatal to Phyrsis, arises to cheat the senses and inform the heart with the most persuasive lie. There is no tenderness in these faces. Their charm is far different from that known to Northern courtiers. It is a still cold langor, to witness which is chilling to the soul. One who commences speech with these damsels finds himself wondering what sort of beings have arisen their devotions, standing tiptoed with their pockets stuffed with lying rebel newspapers and with and courtesy, and refinement, but, ab, how very like a cymbal is the hollow something in the sound of all. These women have suffered. War is nearer their hearths than ours. It is a sterner thing by far. Their hearts are in it-buried, some of them, in graves that thi ken every day upon the soil. Along this valley, in which, from the Potomac to Staunton, there is no law nor safety, the scourge of battle is a monthly episode. All horror all the sacrifice of war, knocks at the door of every mansion on the way. Property and life are things of chance. People. make few plans for the future. To-morrow may shatter them forever. Marriage is never thought of All marriageable men are under arms, and marriageable women let them go with little murmur. There is no use in murmuring. War is the one grand passion to which both sexes are alike devoted, and for which both are ready to make any sacrifice. These women seem to have tacitly accepted the fact that until the war is over, courtship is a mockducted by rebel Methodist preach- ery that had not better be thought ers; the jacks shall be interro of. The maiden who says good bye to her lover makes up her to what progress they have made mind for the worst that can bein producing horse and ass "equal- fall. Death is the rival of love, ity." Each preacher shall take and death, nine times out of ten, his text out of the Southern Meth- is conquerer. Is it strange, then, that we who seek for tenderness vent prayer, to which the jacks in the hearts of these women must shall respond in "notes of sweet seek deep? Wrong as is the concord," the audience shall sing cause, it has a more wide spread, at the tops of their voices, "John and a bitterer, deeper devotion Anderson, my Joe John," etc.

Closing out at four o'clock, the than has ours. One of the most presented himself at her door. I

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 19, 18:4.

WANTED.-A girl, to do general house work for a family in the City. Apply at the U.S. Commissary Storehouse.

Folly of an Armistice,

Copperhead orators, aided by their treason guiding presses are urging upon the Government the propriety of an armistice with the rebels for sixty daysthe saspension of all hostilities and a convention of States to devise measures whereby the war may be terminatedpeace inaugurated and the Union preserved. The folly of such a measure is apparent to any person having common sense, and who is at all familiar with the history of the war. Before Fort Sumter was fired by rebel artillery, leading traitors declared that if a sheet of paper were presented to the South on which to write the terms upon which she would remain in the Union, the offer would be rejected. During the first eighteen months of the war the Government held the sword in one hand and the olive branch in the other; and the latter was extended with earnest entreaty twice where the former was extended once. and even then the extension was of a very mild character.

It is not long ago that the declaration was made that "a peace would yet be wrung from us-the hated foe "-that the first step necessary towards negotiation would be the withdrawal of our armies from Southern soil, and no negotiations would be considered that did not entertain as a foundation the com plete acknowledgment of the independence of the so-called Southern Confederacy and consequent abandonment of the Union. Moreover, Jeff. Davis, the President of the "Southern Confederacy," thus declares the kind of peace that can be made, in his interview with Messrs Gilmore and Jaques, in July last-in these terms, compact and bloody as the short sword of the old Romans : " The war must go on till the last man in this generation falls in his tracks, and his children seize his musket and fight our battle, unless you acknowledge our right to self-government. We are fighting for independence, and that or extermination we will have."

These facts are known to all-even to the school boy-and yet copperheads go before the people talking about an armistice with treason, and the great good which would result from such an act. Copperheads know that an armistice would not accomplish the objects they profess themselves so anxious to attain. What then can be the underlying motive of these men? Suppose, for argument sake, an armistice of sixty days was extended by the Government and accepted i; the rebels, what would be the result? that armed treason must submit and obey the laws of the United States, and the rebels say that they will not voluntarily do that; no settlement which the rebels would accept, because they have declared that they will not again form a portion of the Federal compact, and that the only way to end the war is for us to acknowledge their independence, and we have solemply declared that we will not do that. Hence it follows that an armistice, so far as negotiations are concerned would not even be a step towards the attainment of peace-but so far an actual results are concerned an armistice would do us very great damage and gain to the rebels an immense advantage. Our operations against them would during the period of armistice be entirely suspended-Sherman would set idle in Georgia-Grant would rest before Richmond-Sheridan would cease his ley-the Naval operations all along the coast would be stopped, and almost exhaasted treason would have time to recuperate-time to consolidate-time to conscript more men-time to make provision for Winter-time to gather fresh strength with which to meet us on the battle-field.

Knowing all these facts we do not desire an armistice. We are for fighting this war to the end, acting as we have in the past-never recognizing the rebels as anything but rebels. The only way we can conquer an honorable peace is to do so with the sword, cannon and bayonet. The Nation knows it-the rebels know it-the world knows it and the hypocritical copperheads know it.

Being in the city on Saturday last for the only time in several weeks. we were not only surprised at but pleased with the improvements therein going on; and the stir and bustle on Main street at once told us that Salt Lake City was not the little town of former days. We visited several of the commercial bouses and found both buyers and sellers busily engaged. At Gilbert's Walker's, Ransohoff's, and Eilis' & Brothers, it reminded us that their general reputation for keeping large and well selected stocks, with sales at fair prices, was firmly established. Their counters were lined with customers, attending to whom, were the gentlemanly proprietors and a host of polite and attentive clerks. Judging from the packages that we saw conveyed from these stores to the street, these merchants will require another invoice ere many days.

Our appelite now demanding our sole attention, we repaired to the City Res taurant where it was soon appeased by the substantials and delicacies with which the proprietors of that establishment are ever ready and liberal in bringing on. We recommend the City Restaurant, kept by Messrs Antonio & Baker as an Eating House of the first class, and as one well deserving of patronage.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS .-- A large number of the soldiers lately discharged have already left this city--some bound East, others for Californi aand not a few for Bannack and the adjoining country. Others again are making preparations for a permanent residence in Rush Valley, and some have already gone to work on their claims in that vicinity. Upon the whole, the discharged men have conducted themselves very creditably, and have given as little cause of uneasiness to the inhabitants as could possibly have been expected.

VISIT TO RUSH VALLEY .- Brig .- Gen Connor, Captains Lewis and Stover. of his Staff, Mr. Waren Leland, Mr. Crocker. Mr. Nevett and a number of other gentlemen left this city on yesterday morning on a short visit to Rush Valley and the works of the Rush Valley Smelting Simply this-no settlement which we Company. They will remain a couple could accept, because we have declared of days -long enough to see the furnace in operation, as well as to ascertain to a certainty with regard to certain other points connected with the development of that wealthy mineral region.

> The crowds that we see flocking to the Salt Lake House, Mansion House and California Hotel are sufficient to name them as houses of the first class.

Their tables are munificently laid with the best that the market affords, and no attendance is wanting to make the traveler and boarder at home.

APPOINTMENT .-- Dr. H R Starkweather. formerly a resident of Stockton, Cal., has been appointed Paymaster of recruits (to rank as Major) for Massachusetts.

Gideon C. Jones, of pirate Chapman notoriety, and a brawling secesionist, has been sent to Fort Churchill from brilliant career in the Shenandoah Val- Virginia City for treasonable conduct CALIFORNIA CHAMPAGNE.—The S. F. Mercantile Gazette. says that California champagne at $10 a case is superior to the imported article for which $20 is demanded.

MITITARY VISIT .-- The S. F. Bulletin says that Gen. McDowell and staff left there on Oct. 7th, on a military tour of inspection to Nevada Territory.

In Monitor, Alpine county, Cal. ice formed the thickness of a knife-blade on the night of September 8th.

FLAG PRESENTATION .-- At Chico, on the evening of October 3rd, after the holding of the Union meeting, which was addressed by Brannan and Vinton, a flag presentation came off at Armory Hall, by the ladies of Chico, to the members of the Chico Light Infantry. A corres. pondent of the Union says:

The flag was a fine one—gotten up un-der the superintendence of Col. Joseph Wood, by D. Norcross. of San Francisco. The presentation speech was made by J. C. Mandeville, as follows "Friends of liberty and our country's rights—In behalf of the ladies of Chico I present to you this flag-emblem of our once proud, happy and glorious Union. Be true in your devotions to this flag and the principles you have sworn to maintain, and if ever called upon to defend it, remember that the spirit of our hero fathers is not dead, but upon the third and fourth generation has fallen their mantle, and worthily they wear it. Take it, and do all in your power to stay the hand of foul oppression and roll back that murky cloud which now threatens to destroy our civil, political and reli-gious institutions and all we hold dear on earth, and may you ever be the champions of liberty, justice and truth.' Captain Eddy replied in a patriotic strain, returning many thanks to the fair donors, and pledging in behalf of his company that, in the sad event of war in our midst, the glorious emblem of our Nation's honor should be carried wherever a loyal people need its protective fold; and, animated by the same spirit inspired our patriotic forefathers. the last of their number should perish with its folds around him, nobly battling for his country. Tpon the conclusion of the ceremony, three cheers and a "tiger" each were given with a will for the flag, for the Union, for Mrs. Mandeville, for Captain Eddy, for Gen. Grant. for President Lincoln and for our Gov-SOLDIERS' VOTE .- The Supreme Cour that is a majority of the members of that body, has affirmed its decision that the law allowing the soldiers to vote is unconstitutional. It will be recollected that under the law of 1863. California soldiers voted for State and County offi cers. In Tuolumne county the Union candidates for county officers were elected with the soldiers' vote; without it they were defeated. The vote was contested, and the Supreme Court, a full bench concurring, declared it unconsti tutional. A motion was made and granted for a rehearing. After argument on rehearing the Court reaffirmed its first decision—Chief Justice Sanderson and Justice Curry dissenting .- Suc. Bee.

HOME GUARDS.-A full company of Home Guards is organized in Carson, and under the efficient instruction of Capt. Witherell, making rapid progress in the knowledge of the soldier. A sec-ond company is in contemplation and its ranks can soon be filled up. BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

Our losses on the 13th--Gen. Kautz's Cavalry holds his advance position --- Gross illegality in the vote for Voorhees of Indiana, to be contested.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17th.

The Herald's correspondent with Butler on the 15th, says: The losses during the reconnoissance up the Darbytown road on the 13th, are, in the aggregate, 18 officers and 352 men.

The enemy's firing on the Dutch Gap Canal has ceased since Butler placed a number of rebel prisoners on it.

Trees on the river bank in front of the 18th corps, are being cut down by the rebels in order to give them a better view of operations on our side.

Kautz's cavalry are on the extreme right, and are still holding the advanced position gained in Thurday's reconnoissace, and it is not designed to abandon it.

We have Gen. Lee's official report of this affair, and the Richmond Enquirer's account of it. Both claim a rebel victory.

No new movements in either the Army of the Potomac or the Army of the James reported up to date. At the latest accounts the rebels were observed massing their cavalry on our left with the supposed intention of making a dash on our forces on the Weldon railroad.

A Washington special to the Tribune says: The majority for the new Maryland Constitution, is about 500.

Voorhees of Indiana, is re-elected by less than 100 votes, but on account of alleged gross illa-gality in the vote, it is to be contested, which it is believed will alter the result. From New Orleans,

CAIRO, Oct. 16th.

By the steamer Forsyth from New Orleans the 10th, we have a Natchez letter, which says: A mail was captured which contained full returns of the rebel forces on the west side of the river, and a letter from the Governor of Louisiana to the Confederate government recommending the arming of negroes.

Gen. Pleasanton goes to the front in command of the Cavalry.

St. Louis, Oct. 16th

The Democrat's Jefferson City special says: The Pacific railroad is running to Lamine bridge. Troops are being rapidly sent there. Gen. Fisk leaves in the morning on an important reconnoissance.

Gen. Pleasanton starts for the front to-morrow to take command of the cavalry. It is believed if our mounted force moves rapidly, that Price's train will be captured and his forces divided, either of which can be easily defeated it overtaken.

Election Returns---Sherman close on the heels of Hood.

CINCINNTI, Oct. 17. Returns from 73 counties in Ohio give a Union majority of 27,275.

Commercial's Nashville dispatch says: Communication is again opened with Sherman. He was at Selton, nine miles from Dalton, on Saturday noon. Hood left Dalton on Sunday afternoon, in the direction of Bridgeport. Sherman commenced moving in the same direction and close on gaged in selling goods to blockade runners.

his rear. No battle had been fought at last advices. It is pretty certain that Hood has his whole army with him.

From Chattanooga. LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.

Chattanooga advices say that Lieut. Gruell, of the 17th Ky., led a scont towards Lafayette, twenty-three miles from here, en Wednesday, and drove a small squad of rebels ont of town, and pursued them by their camp, capturing nine out of eleven. Some of his prisoners say that Wheeler's whole command, comprising a portion of Martin's, Roddy's and Jones' cavalry, in the aggregate 8 to 10,000, are all in the country between Chattanooga and Dalton, The rebels entered Resaca on Wednesday morning and took the only troops there (a colored regiment) by surprise. The rebels immediately thereafter moved on Dalton. On Friday there was considerable alarm at Chattanooga, and every able bodied man was put to work on the fortifications. At the latest advices Gen. Kilpatrick with his cavalry was at Dalton. No apprehension is felt for Chattanooga or Knoxville. Sherman has over one hundred day's rations at Atlanta and Knoxville; and has abundant provisions to stand a six months siege. The Chattanooga Government store houses are full of provisions, and large supplies besides are on the ground covered with tarpanlins. Milroy was at Tullahoma, and Schofield at Chattanooga.

A private reliable source says: Saturday evening, Hood's army was between Dalton and Lafavette, making for the latter place, with Sherman pressing him closely. Prominent men say Hood's last move places him exactly in the position desired by Sherman There was considerable excitement at Clarksville, Tenn., in consequence of the report of the scouts that the rebel Gen. Lyon was intending an attack on the place. Government employees had arrived for additional defence of Clarksville. Farther Point, Oct. 17th.

By the Damascus, from Liverpool, 26th : The rebel-loan declined to 57 and 58. Mace charges Coburn with never intending to fight, and claims the stakes.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17. The Enquirer says: Returns foot up a Union majority on the home vote of Great excitement in Baltimore-Military authorities closing business Houses.

Baltimore, Oct. 17th.

There is a great sensation here to-day, caused by the seizure by the military au-thorities, of several large business houses, and closing their establishments. Nothing definite is known regarding the cause, but it is said they are engaged in the contraband trade and rebel mail car-

Washington, Oct. 17. Official information is received that on the evening of the 14th, Col. A number of secessionists of Alexandria have been placed upon a Manasses train to run the risk of being shot by bushwhackers, who fire on our trains.

RUMORED MURDER OF FOURTEEN MEN .-Mr. John Creighton brings intelligence from Owybee, that a party of fourteen men who started from there to go over to Washoe, were attacked by Indians and the whole party killed. No authentic information was yet received when Mr. C. left. nor could he recollect the name of the place where the murder took place, but it was not a great distance beyond Owyhee. THE INTERNAL REVENUE .- The Internal Revenue tax on Income for San Francisco, will amount to $570.268; the tax derived from monthly manufactures and other sources will swell the sum to one million five hundred thousand dollars annually Quite a good round sum for the county of San Francisco.—S. F.

MAN SHOT ON THE MOKELUMNE .-The Stockton Independent of Oct. 11th says:

On Saturday last, on the Mokelumne river, about five miles above Athearn's bridge, a man named Daniel Childs was shot and seriously wounded by a negro. It appears that the negro and a Mexican were in company and were accused of robbing sluices belonging to Childs, who, as he advanced toward the suspected parties, was told by them not to c me any farther-an intimation he disregarded, when the negro fired twice, hitting his victim once in the groin and the next time in the lower part of the abdomen. The wounded man has a family, is highly respected, and lies a condition which, in the opinion of the attending surgeon, renders his recovery extremely doubt-

DEATH OF A HERO. - Sanford T. Guthrie, of Company C, Sixteenth Michigan Volunteers, Fourth Di vision, Fifth Corps, died lately at the Army Hospital in Fredericksburg, Virginia, aged sixteen years. Deceased was a brother of the wife of C. W. Eames, of Shasta, and a native of Munday, Michigan. Though so young, says the Courier, he left his home to fight the battles of his country against the wishes of his family, who thought him too young to bear the hardships of the field. He received his death wound in the forehead, just as his regiment had made a successful charge and captured a line of breastworks from the enemy in one of the first battles of the Wilderness .- Sac. Union.

HOW THE SOLDIERS KECEIVE THE NOMINATION OF MCCLELLAN. - When the news of McClellan's nomination reached Eastport, Maine, the Copperheads prepared to fire a salute, and thinking it would be a fine thing to have it done by returned soldiers, they applied to some officers and soldiers who were at home on furlough, to get them to do the work. Though the veterans were old Democrats, the brave boys had no idea of engaging in any such work of doubt-ful loyalty. They treated the pro-position with contempt and said they were not accustomed to firing tebel guns, and when they did get ready to engage in the rebel service they would go inside the rebel lines to do so.—Sac. Union. ...

Homicide.-At Empire, Colorado Territory, on the 20th ultimo, a man named Hunter shot another named Geary, from the effects of which he died almost immediately. The difficulty grew out of a small matter. Hunter killed Geary's dog, and Geary killed Hunter's .- Virg. Union.

FIRE AND DEATH .- On Sunday the owner perished in the flames. The Independent says:

"There were in the dwelling bonse of Mr. Knoff during the evening a party of men drinking and carousing. About 12 o'clock all left, or were taken away, rather, by their friends, except Mr. Knoff and a teamster; these two elept in the house. By inebriated carelessness the house was set on fire-how, we have not learned. The parties awoke to find themselves enveloped in flames. The teamster escaped, but Mr. Knoff only reached the door, where he fell upon his face and was burned to a crisp. In the stable were four horses belonging to Mr. E. Boarman, which were burned, together with a wagon belonging to a teamster who was out of town."

AN ACTUAL OCCURRENCE.—A few days since, a little boy, aged about six years, entered a business house in this town, and the profane proprietor said to him: "How are you my son? Hurrah for Jesus Christ and General Jackson." "I won't do it," said the little boy; "I'll hurrah for Jackson, but I won't for Jesus." "Why not?" said the proprietor. "Because he is secesh," answered the little fellow. "Who told you that, my son?" querried the gentle-man. "O, I know he is," replied the youngster; "I hear all the seceshioners swear by him !" This is a fact, and with a moral too .-Pajaro Times.

The parents of a little girl were telling their friends at a seashore resort how carefully they had brought up their little daughter, when Kitty interrupted the conversation by asking her mother for permission lo dance the Highland Fling.

"Why, Kitty, you don't know it," said her mother.

"Oh, yes I do, mother; don't you recollect that I used to dance it for uncle Ad. on Sunday afternoons ?"

It is charitable to suppose that Sunday afternoon was a slip of the tongue.

In some discussion societies they debate strange questions. The last was : "What is the difference between the Bridge of Sighs and the size of a bridge?" The next is to be: "The difference between a fac-simile and a sick family."
